

Name _____
Period _____

WSJ January 2010

What's wrong with Wikipedia?

1. Why is the number of Wikipedia volunteers declining?
2. What is "crowdsourcing"?
3. How does founder Jimmy Wales plan to improve the sites accuracy?
4. How has Wikipedia's popularity hurt its credibility?

Missing Out

1. Why would some students opt for online learning?

Charity on a Budget

1. What was Kristen Soucy afraid of when she considered volunteering at the animal shelter, and why did she decide to give her time anyway?

When the Money Runs Out

1. What two industries were hit with particularly high job losses in 2008 and 2009? Will those jobs return when the economy improves? Explain.

2. What is a stopgap job?

Study Guide

1. According to the article, what are the academic differences between high school and college?

2. The column said that college looks for depth over breadth. Explain.

The First Down, Ever

1. How were the rules of the first football game decided?

Temporary Work Has Lasting Benefits

1. According to Ms. Miller, what are the advantages for firms offering temporary jobs?

2. According to Ms. Miller, what are the advantages for employees for taking temporary employment?